

Learn more about studying medicine on two continents

Join us at our next webinar to hear from Medical Dean, Professor Stuart Carney and Head of Ochsner Clinical School, Professor Ron Amedee.

They'll give an overview of our Doctor of Medicine program and highlight the advantages of studying at our two world class institutions – The University of Queensland and Ochsner Health.

Professor
Stuart Carney
Medical Dean

Professor
Ron Amedee
Head, Ochsner
Clinical School

Our medical program at a glance

Ranked 37th in the world, top 20 in the United States.

Four year program, taught two years in Brisbane, Australia and two years in New Orleans.

Comparable residency match rate to US medical schools, with a 2020 match rate of 95.4%.

Graduates can practice medicine in all 50 states of the US and qualify for medical practice in Australia.

Entry requirements

- MCAT 504, GPA B average, pre-requisites and an interview.
- Application for 2022 cohort now open with no application fee.
- ochsner.uq.edu.au/admissions

Webinar streamed live from Brisbane and New Orleans
February 17 2021 6pm (CST)

Register at: <https://ochsner.uq.edu.au/event/session/1062>

Find out more about study at UQ Ochsner:

E: ochsner.med@enquire.uq.edu.au

T: 504-842-7460

W: ochsner.uq.edu.au

THE UNIVERSITY
OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA

